Description

---

Our Stroke Community Conversations groups provide support, understanding, and encouragement for any individual impacted by stroke at any age. Through regular meetings, we offer a safe space to share experiences, discuss challenges, and celebrate milestones with others on a similar path. Discussions cover a wide range of topics based on the experiences and needs of participants present in each meeting. Together, participants of this group face the challenges of recovery, and create a supportive community of strength and inspiration.
